Strong Partnership, Strong Prospects: GIC and Norfund Acquire MMK 131bn Stakes in Myanmar's Yoma Bank

Yangon, Myanmar –10.04 2020 – An affiliate of GIC (“GIC”), Greenwood Capital Pte Ltd, and Norfund, the Norwegian Investment Fund for Developing Countries, have acquired equity stakes in Yoma Bank, one of the largest private banks in Myanmar.

Once the transactions are completed, the two parties will become the second and third foreign shareholders in Yoma Bank after International Finance Corporation (“IFC”), who converted its convertible loan into equity in May 2019. This strong partnership further demonstrates Yoma Bank’s commitment to sustainable capital growth, and its attractiveness as a bank to foreign investors.

The total value of the transactions is approximately MMK 131 billion. The new capital will bolster Yoma Bank’s position in Myanmar financial sector and will enable the Bank to accelerate its continual support to Myanmar entrepreneurs and business owners with long-term capital needs.

In addition to above transactions and subject to the completion of additional shares acquisition, First Myanmar Investment Company Limited (FMI) will also increase its shareholding in Yoma Bank to 61.99% and remains as the largest shareholder of Yoma Bank.

U Theim Wai @ Serge Pun, Executive Chairman of FMI said, “This is a significant milestone for Yoma Bank. Our focus will remain on promoting transparency and exemplary standards of corporate governance. This has formed the bedrock of our success and is the reason we have attracted so many prestigious international partners. Having GIC and Norfund on board is a validation of our steadfast and enduring focus on doing business in the right way, and demonstrates Yoma Bank’s relentless commitment to building a better Myanmar for its people.”

Mr. Dean Cleland, CEO of Yoma Bank said, “Today marks a significant milestone for Yoma Bank as well as the Myanmar Banking sector. While the demand for credit solutions continues to grow, the new foreign investment solidifies our capital position in the market and will further enhance our ability to be a leader in financing businesses. It will also accelerate our investment into new technology, new partnerships and new ways of banking our target segments. This will help us to promote sustainable economic development in Myanmar.” Mr. Cleland also added, “All our new investors are reputable and well-capitalised financial institutions with globally recognized strength and outreach. Their confidence in the future of Yoma Bank has been validated through their equity contribution and is recognition of our position as the Responsible Bank of Myanmar.”
